CHURCH CASE.

Argument in C. P. Suit Before Court.

Arguments were heard last week in the court of appeals in the noted case of the Presbyterian church of America against the Cumberland Presbyterian church. At the Kentucky Synod of the latter church held several weeks ago in this city, a committee was appointed to attend the hearing of the case at Frankfort and several ministers and elders were present, among the number being Rev. A. C. Biddle, of this city. It is not probable that a decision will be handed down before next March.

Under the present law I am required to levy on and sell property for all unpaid taxes. You will please settle same at once to save cost.

Moayon, watchman; Cecil Wooley, escort; Harvey P. Pool, sentry; Cline Haydon, clerk; G. H. Champlin, Robert West and Dr. A. H. Tunks, managers.

JNO. B. RUSSELL, Assignee of M. E. Nolen.

THE ELECTION WAS POSTPONED

Will Be Held By Council At Adjourned Meeting Tomorrow Night.

LICENSE STILL AT $1,000.

Appropriations Amounted to About $3,400 For the Past Month.

The City Council met Friday night and devoted most of its time to routine business, postponing the election of officers and the granting of saloon licenses to an adjourned meeting tomorrow night.

The appropriations were unusually heavy, as some contract payments were due. The bills paid were: The November budget $266.21, City Light Co., street lighting for November, $534.09; Water Co., bill for six months, $2,400; Gus H. Moore, Jr., three bills for contract pavement work, $47.25; Woodbridge & Co., team hire, $30. Chairman Galbreath reported the payment of 22 street bonds, principal, premium and interest amounting to $11,619.67 and the report was accepted. The bonds will be destroyed in open council tomorrow night. The Corporations Committee submitted a written report in the matter of the private sewers ordered closed last fall, protesting against the transfer of the private sewers to the Hopkinsville Sewerage Co. The city claims that the rights conferred were revoked, were non-transferable and that the pipe lines left in the streets belong to the city. The report was ordered to record as a basis of future action. An order was made directing the Street Committee to have an accurate measurement made of the railroad mileage including sidetracks in the city, of the sidewalks, granite, brick and cinders, and of the streets improved and unimproved. The City Engineer will be furnished with assistants and the work completed by the meeting on Dec. 18. On the suggestion of City Engineer McClaid, the same surveying party will locate boundary lines and establish permanent markers for the city limits on all sides.

The usual reports of officers were received.

The City Attorney was directed to draft an ordinance renewing the liquor licenses for another year at present rates. The saloon license was again fixed at $1,000, and a provision added that a saloon can occupy only one room under one license.

ATTRACTION NO. 3

At Tabernacle, Thursday Night, Dec. 17.

P. I. Bugbee, President of the New York State Normal School, says of Judge Willis Brown, who will appear at the Tabernacle Dec. 17:

"Judge Willis Brown is a speaker of superior abilities and he has an inspiring message. His address to the students, teachers and citizens of Oneonta at the Normal School held the closest attention of his audience, and he left an impression of sincerity and devotion to a great purpose. His lecture is educational and he treats the problem of the wayward boy from the point of view of one who has had large experience and who has keen insight and the deepest sympathy. Of all the speakers who have visited this school we know of no one whose return would be more welcome."

EIGHT CONFIRMED.

Bishop Woodcock Preaches Two Strong Sermons.

Bishop Woodcock preached at Grace Episcopal church Sunday and his sermons were among the ablest and most eloquent discourses he has ever delivered here. At night a class of eight new members was confirmed.

Nine Students Come Home.

Henry and Jack Stites and Joe Slaughter, of this city, and three young men of Pembroke—Trabue, Williams and Pendleton; and three young ladies—Misses Alice Radford, Frances Pendleton and Janio Garrett—have returned from Georgetown College. The school adjourned until Jan. 5th, on account of an epidemic of typhoid fever, caused by impure water. Investigation showed that the water from the "Big Spring" was contaminated by a leak in a sewer pipe.

On Account of Typhoid Fever in Georgetown.

Georgetown, Ky., Dec. 4.—Jack Covington, aged eighteen, a student in Georgetown College, died here yesterday of typhoid fever. His sister was with him when he died.

The body was shipped to his home at Hazlehurst, Miss., this morning. The college has been dismissed until January 5 on account of the epidemic of typhoid fever raging here.

There are said to be 125 cases of typhoid in town, though there have been but few deaths.

OUTSIDE THE STATE

Pooled Tobacco May Be Sold.

Frankfort, Ky., Dec. 4.—The case of Owen O'Bannin vs. Commonwealth, from Owen county, was reversed by the Court of Appeals. O'Bannin pooled his tobacco with the Burley Association, but the contract permitted the shipping of tobacco to Cincinnati.

It was shipped there, and while there O'Bannin sold it. He was indicted for so doing and fined $216, under the Crecelius law. The court holds O'Bannin guiltless because the sale was made out of the State.

LIFE RISKS IN AFRICA.

Expert Tells of President's Peril From Disease While Hunting.

BAD FEVER ATTACK CERTAIN.

Baron d'Altonmonte, Who Knows Africa Well, Asserts Mr. Roosevelt Has Only Fifteen Chances in a Hundred of Surviving Tropical Perils—Warns of Kermit's Danger.

When President Roosevelt allowed it to be announced that at the end of his presidency he would go to Africa with his second son, Kermit, a boy still under twenty, in quest of big game the American people, knowing little of Africa, took it as another phase of the president's many-sided character without considering more than big game chances.

Baron A. B. d'Altonmonte, who knows Africa as well as the president knows New York city and who for nearly four years was commandant of the police forces in the Congo Free State and later headed the six months' hunting expedition of Prince Elie Zurnikoff in British East Africa, believes that it is folly for a man of President Roosevelt's age to tempt the fevers and miasmas of Africa. He says it is exceedingly dangerous to take a boy of Kermit Roosevelt's years into the jungle.

To a representative of the New York World the baron said: "How will President Roosevelt hunt in East Africa? Will he take a train at Mombasa, put himself in an open car in front of the engine and shoot while passing at herds of wild elephants or antelopes? No, surely. He will be forced by his own very daring nature to hunt following the precepts of Nimrod, in the only grand way, with all the trouble and all the dangers of the great hunt."

"This will necessitate camping at night in the damp plains, among high grass, full of insects and mosquitoes, or on the border of the muddy and pestilential river—home of the tsetse fly—or in the tenebrous and treacherous forest, full of miasmas and dampness. He will be forced to the long wait lying in ambush for the approach of the elephant; he will have to face the torrid heat of the rocky and naked altitudes to hunt for the lion and the antelope; he will have to cross the putrid bottom of the valleys to watch for the rhinoceros, and with this last one some time he will be compelled to find the running strength of his youth."

"These are the general and particular dangers of a hunting party in Africa, without mentioning the miseries of the daily life—bad water, the rainy season, the fly pest, the inflammation of the skin caused by perspiration, the nights without sleep on account of the heat and a hundred other things."

"To be short, I come to this conclusion, that whoever suggested or did not dissuade President Roosevelt from going to Africa has erred. He is fifty years old, and at his age he would encounter many dangers in Africa merely as a traveler, but as a hunter he will face the greatest perils of his life."

"Apart from the African fever and dysentery and other tropical diseases, President Roosevelt has another great enemy in his constitution, which is far from being perfect, though the average man may believe it is."

"First—The African sun is death dealing to highly excitable and full blooded men."

"Second—A man who so quickly loses his temper as does the president is subject when confronted with the miserable difficulty of the African life to a special form of bilious fever which decomposes the blood and causes death in twenty-four hours. It is known as 'hematuric' fever."

"Here is the percentage table of mortality in central Africa as compiled by the African Traveling association of London:

	Death.	Life.
Twenty-three to thirty years.....	40	60
Thirty to thirty-five years.....	40	60
Thirty-five to forty years.....	40	60
Forty to forty-five years.....	40	60
Forty-five to fifty years.....	40	60
Fifty to sixty years.....	40	60
Over sixty and over sixty.....	40	60

"The mortality of Congo Free State white employees is 35 per cent in lower Congo and 60 per cent in upper Congo, as recognized by Commandant Charles Lemaire, the famous Belgian explorer and authority on all African questions."

"The real, the terrible, the unavoidable danger is the African fever. Very few white people can say that they have visited the center of Africa without having fallen ill with this terrible disease. And thousands of colored men and hunters hardly any have been spared from it, and these for some special reason or for an extraordinary physical constitution."

"Dr. Henry Drummond, one of the most intelligent African travelers, speaking of this, says, 'I never knew of a white man who lived in central Africa three months without a dangerous attack of the fever.'"

"The same is repeated by Commandant Charles Lemaire, the famous Belgian explorer, and by James Edward Alexander, Henry Rowley, C. D. Langham and William Walter Fitzgerald, men that have crossed Africa several times and have explored East Africa. All agree to the fact that nobody under normal conditions can be spared from the fever."

NO REASON FOR IT

When Hopkinsville Citizens Show the Certain Way Out.

There can be no just reason why a reader of this will continue to suffer the tortures of an aching back, the annoyances of urinary disorders, the dangers of diabetes or any kidney ills when relief is so near at hand and the most positive proof given that they can be cured. Read what a Hopkinsville citizen says:

Mrs. W. C. Owen, 212 E. Fourteenth street, Hopkinsville, Ky., says: "I do not hesitate to recommend Doan's Kidney Pills as an excellent remedy for kidney complaints. I speak, too, for them in behalf of my husband, who was cured of backache of a severe nature some two years ago, when we were living at Cordville, Ky. He had suffered and complained a good deal and some days it was all he could do to drag himself about. Stopping or lifting caused him to suffer more intensely. Finally Doan's Kidney Pills were highly recommended to him and he procured them. They soon helped him and by the time he had taken the contents of two boxes he was completely rid of the trouble. I have never heard him complain of a symptom of kidney trouble since."

Remember the name—Doans—and take no other.

O'Connell and Massey.

Laughter has been fatal to at least one bill in the house of commons. In the days of O'Connell, Thomas Massey, who was a sworn foe to everything that suggested Catholicity, introduced a bill to abolish the suffix "mas" from all words in our language and to substitute "ide," thus converting "Christmas" into "Christide," and so on.

When he had ended his introductory speech, O'Connell got up and said: "Since the honorable member has such an insuperable objection to the word 'mas' why does he not set a good example by Anglicizing his own name? In that case we should be quite willing to speak of him as Thordide Tyle."

The house roared with appreciative laughter, but Mr. Massey never recovered sufficient courage to speak of the bill again—London Standard.

"He's the most superstitious poker player I ever saw."

"Yes, and he got so superstitious here lately that he doesn't play the game at all any more."

"You don't say?"

"Yes; he discovered that there are thirteen cards in each suit."

MAKING READY

For Grand Entertainment At Tabernacle Tonight.

At the tabernacle last night the final rehearsal of the "Hall of Fame," the beautiful spectacular production that is to be given tonight under the auspices of the Tabernacle Association and the W. O. W.

Mr. Osborn, the director, was very busy yesterday getting the tabernacle in shape for such a large performance. Arrangements have been made for a special orchestra and the piano on the stage has been moved to the floor of the auditorium so as to give plenty of room for the performance. All the participants in this beautiful spectacular performance were at the auditorium last night and all the different scenes and dances rehearsed on the stage the same as it will be given.

Mr. L. B. Flack and Mr. Fred Jackson, who are the comedians, are busy working up some local comedy and the audience is promised many an amusing and funny act.

Much interest is being manifested in the local jokes that will be sprung on "an unexpected public."

The floral decorations which were at the Elks benefit are to be left for the performance.

The beautiful green palms will make every scene appear as though given in a tropical border of green.

The prospects now are for a large crowd at this entertainment which will net a big sum for the tabernacle association and the W. O. W.

phia of pneumonia. He was a mem-

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors prescribed a local disease and prescribed local remedies and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, promoted incurable disease.
Science has proven catarrh to be a constitutional disease and therefore requires constitutional treatment.
Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Che-cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surface of the system.

LYON'S LAST REPLY TO EWING

Brings Out Some New Points and Stands Pat On the Others.

HAS BEEN IN FRONT

Since the Associations Troubles First Came
On.

The following extracts are from the latest letter of Hugh Lyon, of Eddville to Mr. Ewing:

Lyon county growers have been done a great injustice by having our position misrepresented, for when we took up our matters with the association managers, we did not feel at liberty to take up grievances for other counties, but if the system we asked for is satisfactory and profitable to us, we naturally felt the same system will be satisfactory and profitable to growers of other counties.
And if the system is agreeable to other counties and they do not take interest enough in their affairs to take action, then they should not blame us for wanting to do what is best for ourselves. For at a glance, any one with a fair conception of a business proposition, can readily see that our petition is with all respect and consideration for Mr. Ewing, and the principles that should be embraced in organization and association.

Our proposition is to compare our tobacco with that of other counties, place the same price on the same quality, no matter where it grows, not to sell one crop until we can sell all in the county, not to sell the county crop until we can obtain the same price for our tobacco that is placed on the same quality of tobacco in other counties. Isn't that association? By having the privilege to sell one county would invite competition among buyers and allow independent buyers to purchase one quality of tobacco in one county, at the same price the trust can buy the same quality in another county; certainly all buyers are not in a trust, if so this plan won't work. If the Planters' Protective Association controlled all the black tobacco, and would not sell one hoghead until all would sell, then we would have a union for sure, but that would destroy competition, except on a very, very large scale, and if the American Tobacco company is dissolved, then the buyers would have to form another trust in order to handle such an immense deal.

When the tobacco is sold, we ask that a grader be at each receiving house, grade the tobacco on delivery as per established prices, subtract organization or association expenses, and pay the growers the remainder on the spot. Which will save the growers inspections charges, insurance, interest on what money may be advanced, and other items. And allow the buyer to have some voice in the handling of what he purchases and cause an expenditure of thousands of dollars for labor in small towns of which they are now deprived.

If this proposition isn't fair, isn't practicable, business-like and with all respect and consideration for growers of other counties, and for principles of organization and association, we will appreciate a comment from good, honest, hard working growers: we know that objections are in order from persons expecting positions at the expense of the growers, through the present management of the association. The board of directors seem to think this idea merely a flight of fancy, or a road to the moon built of tissue paper rails, but it appears that Caldwell and Christian county growers consider the idea more substantial.

Shall we have a change or shall we have our tobacco prized and stored, and allow buyers to purchase as it is consumed? The reply from the board of directors to me was very business like and of course appreciated by our growers and myself.
Your informant doesn't seem pleased to give me credit for having signed an obligation the first opportunity, that I have ever since thrown my whole force towards the welfare of the association and am now one of the 80 defendants to a $100,000 damage suit because of the association.

You do not appreciate that I urged our people not to bellyache because we haven't something we never asked for, but to state our grievances, and ask for relief, which was done Nov. 7th, in as polite, respectable, business like manner as could have been.

And we appreciate the kind consideration given the matter and your determination to make us submit to the same methods as heretofore. You do not seem to appreciate my efforts in trying to get a system that would establish a lasting and friendly relationship between ourselves and the Planters' Protective Association.

My townspeople or any others who may say my motive is other than to promote the welfare of the tobacco growers certainly have done Lyon county a great injustice by not proving it to us. We want the Planters' Protective Association to live, but we want to live, too, and, if under the present methods we cannot, we feel imposed upon by not having our petition granted.

May the association band wagon roll merrily on, but I had rather walk than to ride at the expense of the Lyon county tobacco growers under present conditions. And we had all rather line up together to a tune of satisfaction, success and happiness, but the band seems out of tune. The Lyon county growers are invited to meet a committee from Caldwell county at Kuttawa, Dec.
12, and take definite action in the matter. If the association has anything else to offer we will appreciate it, but it should be more than a verbal promise, or a request to wait a little longer.

COCK FIGHT

In the Grand Jury Room at Frankfort.

Frankfort, Ky., Dec. 4.—In the grand jury room of the Franklin county courthouse, the oldest temple of justice in Kentucky, and before a large crowd of spectators, the game cocks on exhibition at the annual State Fanciers and Breeders' Association last night sparred for the championship and a handsome loving cup. Diamond, a handsome gray cock of the first strain, belonging to S. M. Sauley, of this city, was given the decision after five fast rounds.
It was intended to have this novel exhibition in a pit on the judge's rostrum, but the crowd was so large that the pitting had to be done in the grand jury room.

Farmers, mechanics, railroaders, laborers rely on Dr. Thomas' Elec-burns or bruises at once. Pain can-

SALE OF LITTLE RED CROSSES

Part of a Great National Movement To Fight
Consumption.

STARTED IN DELAWARE.

Crusade Now Extends To All
States and Foreign Countries.

Mr. F. A. Sampson arrived in the city Saturday and found the arrangements for the sale of Christmas stamps had been well made and there was little for him to do except to encourage the work.

This work which has been undertaken in Hopkinsville by the Kentucky Anti-Tuberculosis Association, the sale of the Red Cross Christmas stamp, is part of a movement which has swept over the whole country, and the results of which are expected to give to the Nation's battle against tuberculosis the greatest impetus it has ever received. Those who buy the Christmas stamp in Hopkinsville and Kentucky therefore, may know that while the money they give is to be used in the work here at home, they are taking part not in an isolated campaign, but in a crusade which embraces all America and many countries of the World.

As has been related before, the idea for the Christmas stamp was born in Denmark in 1904, and last year, at the suggestion of Jacob A.
Riis, the famous sociologist, was sold as an experiment in Delaware.
The sale lasted less than two weeks, but over 400,000 stamps were sold.
The encouragement received was so great that the National Red Cross Society decided to issue stamps to the anti-tuberculosis organizations of the whole country during the 1908 holidays.

IMPROVED PIPE WRENCH.

Simplicity of Construction a Feature of Useful Tool.

The wrench illustrated herewith is formed with a slidable jaw, which enables it to grip round surfaces. No retaining pins or other detachable retaining devices are used, and an efficient pipe wrench is thus provided with few loose parts. Formed on the main body A of the wrench is a fixed jaw, B. Dovetailed into opposite sides of the body are a pair of detachable racks, C, which are adapted to mesh with the thread of the nut D. This nut is fitted in a frame, E, which in turn is mounted to slide along the body or shank of the wrench. The frame E is extended at one side, and in the inclined upper face of this extension an undercut guiding is formed adapted to receive the slidable jaw F. A spring pressed pin in jaw G bears against the shank A and holds the jaw in its outermost position. In use the nut D is adjusted to close the jaws on to the work and then, when the wrench is operated, the sliding jaw moved inward, jamming the jaw against the upper jaw. Fig. 2 shows a cross sectional view of the mechanism. Mr. Harvey N. Rothweiler of Seattle, Wash., is the inventor of this improved pipe wrench.

PIPE WRENCH.

PLANT PROTECTION.

Self Defense as Practiced by Various Forms of Vegetation.

Plants are said to protect themselves much the same as do insects. One of the uses of the sensitive plant is to frighten troublesome animals. A venturesome, browsing creature coming too near is evidently afraid to touch a plant so decidedly aggressive. The squirting cucumber of the Mediterranean alarms goats and cattle by discharging its ripe fruits explosively in their faces the moment the stem is touched. The cucumbers contain a pungent juice that discharges itself into the eye of its opponent, and the resultant smarting sensation is difficult of endurance.

The dainty grass of Parnassus is beautiful, but diabolical. It is a bog herb and has glossy green leaves and pure white blossoms and is supposed to be the poet's flower. Within its milk white flowers lurk the elements of deception, for the drops of honey that the bees and insects fancy they see inside the petals are in reality solid, glassy imitations of the real thing. The flower fools the bee in this way, so that it may carry the pollen to other blossoms, where its kind may be perpetuated.

A New Life Saving Appliance.
Captain G. K. Gandy, R. N. K., is responsible for a useful adjunct to the accepted life saving appliances required by the English board of trade. He has utilized the ordinary canvas cover of a ship's boat so as to form a buoyant raft by the introduction of cork and bamboo cane. This additional element of buoyancy occupies no more room and adds very little weight to the customary equipment of a ship's boat and possesses the material advantage of being in the most natural and convenient place on a vessel for use when occasion arises. To lower a boat its cover must be removed for the operation, and in the case of the buoyant cover it can be either laid aside or thrown overboard and, being attached by a line, is there afloat ready for any emergency. The idea has evidently been well considered. The admiralty has recognized the value of the device, the masters having just completed an extensive order for the dockyards.

Poisonous Nettles of the Tropics.
In tropical regions there are nettles far more powerful than that of our own country. The one called Urtica stimulates, which is found in Java, and the called Laportea crotolaria, found in Hindustan, when bruised emit an effluvia which poisons the eyes and mouth and if handled produce convulsions and serious swelling and pain in the arms, which may last for three or four weeks and in some cases cause death.

Muslin Better Than Glass.
The use of muslin windows instead of glass in dairy construction is said to help materially in the fight against tuberculosis.

HER MESSAGE TO SISTER SUE

Mrs. Chatter's Instructions to Hubby Were Long Drawn Out.

"Henry, dear," said little Mrs. Chatter to her husband while he was drawing on his top coat preparing to make the rush for the train that was to take him into the city. "You know the phone isn't working this morning, and I do want to send Sister Sue a message in regard to meeting her this afternoon in the city. Could you, dear, ring Sue up on your phone in the office and give her a message from me? You can as well as not? Thank you, dear. Well, tell her that if it doesn't set in to rain and if Cousin Em doesn't come to take me to ride in her auto this afternoon, as she said she might, but you know how reckless Cousin Em is with her promises, and it wouldn't surprise me if she never thought of it again, but if she should come I don't want to miss the ride, and I'll try to get Sue on the phone by that time and let her know if I go to ride, or if Lizzie Brayton doesn't come over to have me help her on that programme we are arranging for the benefit of the day nursery. Tell Sue I will meet her in the waiting room at Ridgeley's at 8, or it may be a quarter after or a quarter before, or if she'd rather have me meet her some place else tell her to try to ring me up and let me know. I guess our phone will be working by that time. Tell her it wasn't working this morning and that is the reason I didn't ring her up, as I said I would, and tell her to try to think to bring me my hatpin and my lace handkerchief that I left when we stayed all night with her Monday night, and ask her if I didn't leave one of my gloves there, and tell her that, after all, I think we'd better meet at some place other than Ridgeley's because that is so far from where we are going, and ask her to try to think to bring me the recipe for that new kind of cake we had at dinner Monday night, for I'd like to try a loaf of it when we have the Brynlys here to dinner Friday. Yes, yes, of course you must get your train, dear. Run along. Only be sure to ring Sue up and tell her that she'd better ring me about noon, and—good-by! Don't forget!—Puck.

The address of Mr. Thomas was of course the central feature of the exercises. He is the City Attorney of Bowling Green and a speaker of acknowledged ability. YOUNG M. D.'s.

Uncle Sam Wants Them in His Service.

The following circular has been issued by the Treasury Department at Washington:

A board of commissioned medical officers will be convened to meet at the Bureau of Public Health and Marine Hospital Service, 3 B street, SE., Washington, D. C., Monday, Jan. 11, 1909, at 10 o'clock, a. m., for the purpose of examining candidates for admission to the grade of assistant surgeon in the Public Health and Marine Hospital Service. Candidates must be between 22 and 30 years of age, graduates of a reputable medical college, and must furnish testimonials from responsible persons as to their professional and moral character. The following is the usual order of the examinations: 1, physical; 2, oral; 3, written; 4, clinical.

In addition to the physical examination, candidates are required to certify that they believe themselves from any ailment which would disqualify them for service in any climate.

The examinations are chiefly in writing, and begin with a short autobiography of the candidate. The remainder of the written exercise consists in examination in the various branches of medicine, surgery and hygiene.

The oral examination includes subjects of preliminary education, history, literature and natural sciences.

The clinical examination is conducted at a hospital, and, when practicable, candidates are required to perform operations on a cadaver.

Successful candidates will be numbered according to their attainments on examination, and will be commissioned in the same order as vacancies occur.

Upon appointment the young officers are, as a rule, first assigned to duty at one of the large hospitals, as at Boston, New York, New Orleans, Chicago or San Francisco.

After four years' service assistant surgeons are entitled to examination for promotion to the grade of passed assistant surgeon.

Promotion to the grade of surgeon is made according to seniority and after due examination as vacancies occur in that grade.

Assistant surgeons receive $1,600, passed assistant surgeons $2,000, and surgeons $2,500 a year. Officers are entitled to furnished quarters for themselves and their families, or, at stations where quarters cannot be provided, they receive commutation at the rate of $30, $40 and $50 a month, according to grade.

All grades above that of assistant surgeon receive longevity pay, 10 per cent. in addition to the regular salary for every five years' service up to 40 per cent. after twenty years' service.

The tenure of office is permanent. Officers traveling under orders are allowed actual expenses.

For further information, or for invitation to appear before the Board of Examiners, address "Surgeon General Public Health and Marine Hospital Service, Washington, D. C."

Swift's Premium Calendar for 1909.

Swift's Premium Calendar for 1909 consists of reproductions in color of four of the world's famous masterpieces of painting.

The first subject is Gaylord S. Truesdell's pastoral scene, "Going to Pasture." The original of this picture is now on exhibition in the Corcoran Art Gallery, Washington.

Next, Winslow Homer's stirring marine picture, "All's Well," was chosen. This picture is in Homer's best style, showing a strength and simplicity that conveys his idea at a glance. This is among the treasures of the Boston Museum of Fine Arts.

The third subject is Breton's famous "Song of the Lark." This picture, on exhibition at the Art Institute of Chicago, is the best known of the four. This beautiful reproduction faithfully portrays the spirit of the original.

Bougereau's "The Sisters" complete's this finest of all Swift & Company Calendars. Bougereau is represented in this country by several paintings, especially mural decorations in New York. "The Sisters," in the Metropolitan Museum, is one of his best and happiest efforts.

The calendar can be secured for 10 cents in stamps or coin from Swift & Company, Union Stock Yards, Chicago, Ill., Calendar Dept.

WIRELESS MESSAGES

Pertinent Points About People, Plans and Places.

JENKENS—Rev. Millard A. Jenkins will deliver his lecture on Jerusalem at the Pembroke Baptist church next Friday night, Dec. 11, under the auspices of the Baptist Young People's Union.

WINN—Paul Winn has been notified of his success in the popularity contest of the Louisville Post. He won a trip to Cuba with all expenses paid. It is not known yet when he will make the trip. Mr. Winn received more than 300,000 votes.

VAN CLEVE—The Cadiz Record says Tom Van Cleve, a former popular Hopkinsville boy, who has lived there several years, is to go on the road next year as a hardware drummer. He will travel for a Louisville house. Mr. Van Cleve is a son of Mr. John J. Van Cleve of this county, and his wife was formerly Miss Elsie Baker, of Julien.

BAYNHAM—Frank Baynham, one of Hopkinsville's best known young dry goods men, will leave for New Orleans on the 16th inst. to accept a lucrative position in a large department store. He will carry with him the good wishes of many friends here and those who know him best are sure that he is entering upon a successful career in the mercantile business.

JOHNSON—It is not generally known, but L. A. Johnson, the druggist, is a most expert player of checkers. In fact he claims to be the champion player of this part of Kentucky and is hunting for some one who can play well enough to at least interest him. Esq. W. E. Warfield, of Casky, is something of a player himself and learning of Dr. Johnson's reputation as a player promptly challenged him for a series of games. Johnson beat him two straight with such ease that Esq. Warfield gave up without further effort. Mr. A. M. Henry, of Newstead, has a lot of friends who are anxious to pit him against the champion and a match may be arranged.

BUCKNER—The defeat of Mr. Samuel G. Buckner for re-election as Salesman of the Planters Association here, is destined to have a far-reaching effect on the local market. Disappointment with the salesman selected is given as the prime cause for much of the tobacco from South Christian being diverted to Clarksville. The Leaf Chronicle says of the new conditions:

"Everything seems now to be coming 'Clarksville's way,' and receipts next year promise to show large increase. Much will depend upon the enterprise of the warehousemen, and the liberality of the banks. Planters wish to ship here if they get full encouragement, and the foreign buyers wish to buy here if there should be full stocks for their requirements. They are getting tired of samples and the freights from the outside storage houses. The market here will be no doubt an active one throughout the coming year." Some of the prizing houses who draw their business largely from the Southern half of the county, are being given to understand that there is wide spread dissatisfaction with the defeat of Mr. Buckner, whose business experience of 40 years in handling tobacco and his high character as a christian gentleman made him an exceptionally qualified man for the place he has filled so acceptably.
